

PRESS RELEASE

Amundi Combines Pioneer Investments and Amundi Smith Breeden to Launch Amundi Pioneer in the U.S.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boston, Durham, July 3, 2017 – Amundi announced today that it is combining Pioneer Investment Management USA Inc., in Boston with its existing U.S. business, Amundi Smith Breeden in Durham, N.C., to form Amundi Pioneer Asset Management. The new firm will manage Amundi’s U.S. investment hub and distribution platform. Amundi is Europe’s largest asset manager as measured by assets under management and ranks among the world’s top ten asset managers, with approximately $1.3 trillion in assets under management.¹

New Brand – Amundi Pioneer

Effective today, Amundi is establishing a new brand within the United States: Amundi Pioneer. While the U.S. brand will be new, the integration and alignment of Amundi’s entities around the globe remains key to its organizational structure.

The new U.S. brand signifies:

- Ownership by Amundi Asset Management, based in Paris
- The significantly larger scale and resources of the combined firms
- Amundi’s desire to maintain the strong brand recognition of Pioneer Investments in the U.S., with a history dating back to 1928

U.S. Leadership and Geographic Scope

The new brand represents Amundi’s business in the U.S. The U.S. management team will also oversee Amundi’s operations throughout the Americas, including Canada and Latin America. The firm will maintain offices in Boston, Durham, Buenos Aires, Mexico City, Miami, Montreal, and Santiago. Boston is one of Amundi’s six global investment hubs, along with Dublin, London, Milan, Paris, and Tokyo. Durham is one of Amundi’s ten local investment centers, including Budapest, Hong Kong, Kuala Lumpur, Madrid, Munich, Prague, Singapore, Vienna, and Warsaw.

- Lisa Jones, previously President and Chief Executive Officer of Pioneer Investment Management USA Inc., has been named Head of the Americas for Amundi and Amundi Pioneer, and will serve on Amundi’s Global Executive Committee. She serves as Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of Amundi Pioneer.
- Patrice Blanc, previously Chief Executive Officer of Amundi Smith Breeden, has been named Chief Operating Officer of Amundi Pioneer.

Benefits of Pioneer U.S. Combining With Amundi Smith Breeden

The combination of Pioneer in the U.S. with Amundi Smith Breeden expands the resources of both firms in all areas of the business, including investments, distribution, marketing, and operations.

- Pioneer Investments was founded in 1928 by Philip L. Carret, and has been a leading innovator in global asset management since its inception. Pioneer in the U.S. offers a broad range of fixed-income, equity and multi-asset investment solutions. A focus on proprietary research, robust risk management, disciplined investment processes, and close partnerships with clients has made the firm an investment manager of choice among leading institutional and individual investors worldwide. Pioneer in the U.S. had $68.6 billion in global assets under management as of December 31, 2016.
- Grounded in research and analytics, Amundi Smith Breeden has a rich history of providing investment expertise based on proprietary fixed-income option pricing techniques. Founded as Smith Breeden Associates in 1982 as an interest rate risk and investment advisory services firm for financial institutions, Amundi Smith Breeden has expanded to become a highly regarded fixed-income manager offering an extensive range of fixed-income strategies tailored to meet the needs of institutional investors. Acquired by Amundi in September of 2013, Amundi Smith Breeden had $10.2 billion in global assets under management as of December 31, 2016.

Commenting on the announcement, Amundi Pioneer CEO Lisa Jones said, “We are looking forward to the opportunity to leverage the broad global resources of Amundi. In bringing together Pioneer and Amundi Smith Breeden, we are combining organizations that share similar investment philosophies and corporate cultures and that value teamwork across a collegial, collaborative environment. Collectively we share an intense focus on meeting the needs of our clients and look forward to continuing to deliver innovative investment solutions.”

The two firms will be governed by one leadership team as of today, and will collaborate closely on investment ideas, marketing, business development; and client service. The integration of legal entities (both broker dealers and investment advisers) is expected to be completed on or before January 1, 2018.

Amundi also announced that shareholders of each of Pioneer’s 37 U.S. open-end and closed-end mutual funds voted in favor of a proposal allowing each fund to sign a new management agreement with Amundi Pioneer Asset Management. The approvals are the result of votes on proposals identified in the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, dated March 20, 2017.
